WEBELOS

The Meaning of Webelos

The word Webelos (say WEE-buh-lows) has a special meaning within the BSA. Webelos is made up of the first letters of these words: "WE'll BE LOyal Scouts." Loyal means you'll keep the Scout Oath and try to live by the Scout Law.

WELCOME TO THE WEBELOS ADVENTURE TRAIL

On the Webelos Adventure Trail, you'll explore the outdoors, make new friends, play games, and do things that only Cub Scouts do. As you're having fun, you'll complete a group of activities called Adventures. After completing each Adventure, you'll receive an Adventure pin that is worn on special ribbons called the Adventure Colors that attach to the right sleeve of your Cub Scout uniform shirt.

You may complete as many Adventures as you like, but to earn the Webelos badge of rank, you must complete all six required Adventures and at least two elective Adventures. When you complete fourth grade, you'll begin your Arrow of Light Adventure Trail.

CUB SCOUT PARENT GUIDE

(This section is for your parent or legal guardian.)

Your child will get the most out of their Cub Scout experience when you take an active part. Cub Scouting is led by volunteer parents just like you. They come together to plan Cub Scout activities, meetings, and special events. For many parents, this is a great way to get to know the other families in their community. Chances are, you have a lot in common. Your children may attend the same school and may even have the same teachers. You may shop at the same grocery store, play at the same park, or even live within walking distance of each other.

GETTING STARTED AS A CUB SCOUT PARENT

- Find out who your contact person is for Cub Scouting. The contact person may have a specific title like den leader or Cubmaster, or they just may be an active parent. This is the person whom you can contact to ask questions as you are getting started.
- Confirm the details of the den meetings, pack meetings, and other activities. Add them to your personal and family calendars.
- 3. Plug into the communication channel that your pack and your den use. Each Cub Scout pack has a different way they communicate with parents; some have multiple ways. It may be as simple as a text message group, a communications app, or

- 4. Download the free Scouting app from the Apple App Store® and Google Play™ store. The Scouting app gives parents an easy way to stay connected with their Cub Scout's progress and official records.
- Read the remainder of this chapter, Cub Scout Parent Guide, and the Essential Cub Scout Family Activities chapter.

WHAT IS CUB SCOUTING?

Cub Scouting is the youth program of the Boy Scouts of America® (BSA) for kindergarten through fifth grade. The mission of the program is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and the Scout Law. This is accomplished through the aims and methods of Scouting — what we want to teach and how we teach.

The four aims are: character development, leadership, citizenship, and personal fitness.

The seven methods of Cub Scouts are: living the ideals, belonging to a den, advancement, family involvement, activities, serving the neighborhood, and the uniform.

Your child wanted to join and will stay in Cub Scouting because it is fun. Cub Scouting has been described as "a game with a purpose." The activities in Cub Scouting serve a purpose deeper than just having fun. Activities are designed to meet the mission of the BSA.

HOW CUB SCOUTING IS ORGANIZED

Later in this book, we describe how Cub Scouting is organized in a way your Webelos Cub Scout can best understand. As an adult, we want you to have a deeper understanding of the BSA.

Think of the BSA as an upside-down pyramid. At the base of the pyramid — the smallest part — is the national organization of the BSA. It is designed to support the sections above it. The National Council of the BSA is led by a volunteer group called the National Executive Committee along with the chief executive officer, or the Chief Scout Executive. Additional volunteers and staff members make up the National Council, which includes departments such as Scout shops, program development, information technology, and safety.

The next part of the pyramid is your local council, a geographic territory that the National Council has granted permission to deliver Scouting programs within that area. The local council is also led by a volunteer group and a council executive committee, along with a chief executive officer called the Scout executive.

On the left sleeve of the Cub Scout uniform is a patch that identifies your local council. Some councils create geographic areas called districts. Districts are designed to provide service and support to local Scouting programs in the designated area. A district committee made up of volunteers does this work and is often supported by a staff member called a district executive.

At the top of the pyramid — the largest part — are the local Scouting programs. Local councils partner with community organizations, called chartered organizations, to deliver Scouting programs. Chartered organizations have an annual agreement with the local council to sponsor one or more Scouting programs.

If a chartered organization wants to have a Cub Scout program, it organizes what is called a Cub Scout pack. Packs are organized to best serve the families to whom the chartered organization is looking to deliver the program. Often, this is a school, neighborhood, or community. Your Cub Scout pack is identified with a number. On the Cub Scout uniform, there is a place to put your pack number on the left sleeve under the council patch.

The chartered organization representative is just that, the person designated to represent the organization that has an agreement with the local council to deliver the Scouting program. The chartered organization approves all those who volunteer to be leaders in the pack, usually parents of Cub Scouts. Each pack has a pack committee made up of leaders and parents led by the pack committee chair. This volunteer, usually a parent, organizes the adults to plan and deliver the Cub Scouting program.

The Cubmaster is a volunteer, usually a parent, who coordinates the delivery of the program to the youth of all ages at the pack level, with the help of assistant Cubmaster(s) and other parents.

A Cub Scout pack is made up of small groups called dens. How dens are formed is up to the pack. Packs ultimately form dens in a way that best serves the families in the pack. Ideally, a den has about eight Cub Scouts who are all in the same grade and working on the same rank together. Dens can also be formed with different grades. A Cub Scout pack with three second graders (Wolves) and two third graders (Bears) may form a multi-rank den with those five Cub Scouts. Regardless of how dens are formed, Cub Scouts earn Adventures and the badge of rank only for their grade level.

The den is led by a volunteer den leader and assistant den leader, usually a parent. The den leader coordinates meetings and activities centered around Cub Scout Adventures. Adventures are made up of a group of activities. When the required activities for each Adventure are completed, the Cub Scout receives an Adventure pin that is worn on special ribbons called the Adventure Colors, as recognition for completing an Adventure.

Advancement refers to the progress your Cub Scout is making toward their badge of rank. Cub Scouts work only on the badge of rank associated with their grade level. For fourth grade, this is the Webelos badge of rank. Your Cub Scout earns their Webelos badge of rank by completing the six required Adventures and two elective Adventures. When they complete a badge of rank, they may not work on the next badge of rank until they have completed the grade level associated with that badge of rank. Cub Scouts may not work on a badge of rank for an earlier grade level.

ESSENTIAL CUB SCOUT FAMILY ACTIVITIES

The Cub Scout program is designed for you to share adventures together. Be active, have fun, and enjoy the moments you have together. As an adult, you will also make new friends and have opportunities to try new things.

Cub Scouting is a holistic program; the positive impact works best when incorporated into your home. One way to do this is to be familiar with the Scout Oath and the Scout Law and look for ways to recognize your Cub Scout when they are following these values.

ADVENTURE REQUIREMENTS TO DO AT HOME

Most Adventure requirements will be completed with your den or pack. The following requirements are designed to be done at home. Let your den leader know when you have completed them with your Cub Scout.

BOBCAT

Requirement 7 — At home, with your parent or legal guardian, do the activities in the booklet "How to Protect Your Children From Child Abuse: A Parent's Guide."

MY SAFETY

Requirement 1 — With permission from your parent or legal guardian, watch the Protect Yourself Rules video for the Webelos rank.

Requirement 2 — Identify items in your house that are hazardous and make sure they are stored properly. Identify where on the package it describes what to do if someone is accidentally exposed to the product.

MY FAMILY

Your den leader may ask that you complete all requirements for this Adventure at home. See the requirements on page 98.

WHAT ARE WEBELOS?

The Meaning of Webelos

The word Webelos (say WEE-buh-lows) has a special meaning. Webelos is made up of the first letters of these words: "WE'll BE LOyal Scouts." Loyal means you'll keep the Scout Oath and try to live by the Scout Law.

Webelos Tartan

A tartan is a pattern on a piece of cloth that has crisscrossed stripes in different colors. In America, tartan is also called plaid. In the country of Scotland, a tartan's unique colors and patterns can identify someone as part of a certain family. Scottish kilts are the most famous article of clothing made with tartan patterns.

Your Webelos neckerchief and hat are made with a tartan that has the colors blue, gold, red, and green. These colors represent the different programs of the BSA: blue and gold for Cub Scouting, red for Scouts BSA, and green for Venturing. The Webelos tartan is registered with The Scottish Register of Tartans and is a symbol that you're a Webelos Scout.

As a Webelos Scout, you are one of the older Scouts in the pack. Everything in the Webelos program is more challenging than the activities younger Cub Scouts in the pack do. You'll earn Adventure pins instead of Adventure loops, which you'll wear on the Adventure Colors, a set of ribbons worn on the right sleeve of your uniform.

As a Webelos Scout, you are someone who younger Cub Scouts may look up to. It is important that you do your best to follow the Scout Oath and the Scout Law. When you're with younger Cub Scouts, you should set a good example with your behavior. You may ask adult leaders if they need help with the younger Cub Scouts.

YOUR CUB SCOUT PACK

You and your family are part of a Cub Scout pack. A pack is made up of several families that are part of Cub Scouting in your community. A pack includes Cub Scouts who are in kindergarten through fifth grade. The pack will get together for activities, meetings, and outings. The adult leader of the pack is called the Cubmaster. To make Cub Scouting more fun, packs form small groups called dens.

YOUR CUB SCOUT WEBELOS DEN

Your den is the group in which you make new friends, play games, and earn Adventures as you work toward earning your Webelos badge of rank. Each den is a little different. Most of your Cub Scout fun will be with your den. The adult leader of the den is called the den leader.

YOUR CUB SCOUT ADULT LEADERS

You will see several adults in Cub Scouting; you will be able to recognize some right away because they are wearing a uniform. Other adults may be part of the pack but do not wear a uniform. As a Cub Scout, always be respectful to adults in your Cub Scout pack.

At no time is any adult, other than your parent or legal guardian, to be alone with you.

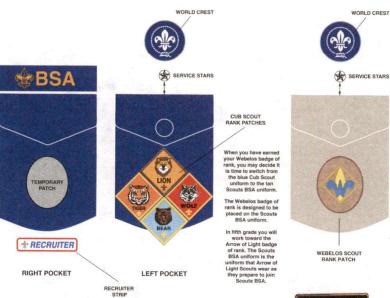

YOUR CUB SCOUT WEBELOS UNIFORM

Wearing your uniform shows everyone that you are a Cub Scout. Think of it as being part of one of the largest teams in America. Wear your uniform to pack meetings, den meetings, and special activities when you are with other Cub Scouts. There are times when you are going to get dirty in Cub Scouts; for those times it's OK to wear a Cub Scout T-shirt.

The uniform includes the blue Cub Scout shirt, blue Cub Scout bottoms (shorts, pants, or skort), the Cub Scout belt, and Cub Scout socks. Each rank has a hat, neckerchief, and neckerchief slide with its own emblem and colors. The Webelos hat and neckerchief are plaid.

The pictures on the next page show you where to put badges of rank and patches on your blue Cub Scout shirt. You might receive a patch for attending a special event like a campout or for selling popcorn. These are examples of "temporary insignia" and should be worn centered on the right pocket. Sometimes these patches come with a button loop so you can hang your patch from your pocket button.

As a Webelos you also get to wear the Adventure Colors, a group of yellow, green, and red ribbons attached to a metal clasp. As you earn your Webelos Adventure pins, you'll attach them to the Adventure Colors. There is no order or specific color as to where you place the Adventure pins.

THE WEBELOS ADVENTURE TRAIL

The Cub Scout activities that you do with your den, pack, and family are called Adventures. Each Adventure has several things you do to earn that Adventure. These are called requirements. You'll have fun completing the requirements with the help of your den, pack, and family.

When you complete a requirement for an Adventure, have your leader, parent, or legal guardian confirm that you did your best by initialing the requirement in your handbook like in the sample below.
